

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
HOT SPRINGS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

Case No. 6:22-CR-60007

DANIEL WHITLOCK

ORDER

The United States must turn over to the defense all exculpatory evidence—that is evidence that favors the defendant or casts doubt on the government’s case. See Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and cases applying this precedent. If the government fails to produce exculpatory evidence to the defense in a timely manner, the Court may take certain steps: excluding certain evidence; giving adverse jury instructions; dismissing charges; holding government lawyers in contempt; or imposing other appropriate sanctions.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 11th day of March, 2024.
